Product Description

Product Description:

Tomato Ketchup Sauce is a delicious and versatile condiment that is a staple in countless kitchens. Crafted from ripe tomatoes, this sauce delivers a perfect blend of sweet, tangy, and savory flavors, enhancing a variety of dishes.

A standout feature of Tomato Ketchup Sauce is its nutritional profile. Each 100g serving contains 20.7g of carbohydrates, providing a delightful sweetness that complements many foods. It also contains 5.3g of protein, making it a great addition for those seeking to boost their protein intake.

In terms of sodium, this sauce has 2975mg per 100g, contributing a savory umami flavor that enhances the taste of sandwiches, burgers, fries, and more. It's important for those watching their salt consumption to be aware of this sodium content.

With a nutrient reference value offering 7% of the recommended daily energy intake, Tomato Ketchup Sauce is a flavorful and satisfying addition to meals, helping to keep you energized throughout the day.

At just 3.3g of fat per 100g, this ketchup is a low-fat condiment option. This makes it an excellent choice for those who want to enjoy a tasty sauce without excessive fat consumption.

Whether used as a dip, marinade, or topping, Tomato Ketchup Sauce brings a burst of flavor to any meal. Its adaptability makes it a favorite among both home chefs and culinary professionals.

Often referred to as tomato jam or tomato honey sauce due to its sweet-savory profile, this condiment features a rich tomato flavor and smooth texture, appealing to those who enjoy a touch of sweetness in their dishes.

In summary, Tomato Ketchup Sauce is a tasty and nutritious condiment that can enhance a wide array of meals. With its perfect balance of sweetness, tanginess, and umami, it's an essential item for any kitchen pantry.
